1. Choose the rescue phrase.

Pick the phrase that solves the problem.

1. You hear a new word and want its meaning. [What does it mean? / How old is it? / Where are you?]
2. You did not hear the sentence clearly. [Can you say that again? / What is your room? / Yes, please.]
3. You know the Spanish word “azotea” but not the English word. [How do you say “azotea” in English? / Can you spell Mexico? / Is it old?]
4. You understand the word but do not know how to write it. [Can you spell it? / What does it mean? / Who is it?]

2. Complete the phrase.

Write one missing word.

1. Sorry, I don't ___.
2. What does “cabinet” ___?
3. Can you say that ___?
4. Can you ___ it?

3. Help your classmate.

Write a simple answer to each question.

1. “What's a rug?”
2. “What does patio mean?”
3. “How do you say ‘espejo’ in English?”

4. Rescue the conversation.

Create a four-line dialogue. Student A uses a new home word. Student B asks for help and then continues.
