Omitting the Relative Pronoun

B1-PLUS · Grammar · WORKSHEET

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Choose the best sentence.

Choose the best joined sentence.

1. I met a woman. You work with her.
   Choices: I met the woman you work with. / I met the woman you work with her. / I met the woman who you work.

   Answer: _____

2. I bought a jacket. I loved it.
   Choices: The jacket I bought is great. / The jacket I bought it is great. / The jacket bought I is great.

   Answer: _____

3. There is a café. We went there.
   Choices: The café we went to is nice. / The café where we went to is nice. / The café we went is nice.

   Answer: _____

4. Choose the sentence where the pronoun must stay.
   Choices: The man who called is my boss. / The man called is my boss. / The man which called is my boss.

   Answer: _____

2. Complete the sentence.

Write one word, or X if no word is needed.

1. The restaurant (___) we ate at was good.

2. The shop ___ sells shoes is closed.

3. The person I talked ___ was very helpful.

4. The ad (___) I saw yesterday was funny.

3. About you.

Write sentences without the pronoun.

1. Combine: I saw an ad. It made me laugh.

3. About you. (continued)

2. Combine: I met a person. You know her.

3. Write your own sentence.