Can + Well: Say How Good You Are

A1 · Grammar · WORKSHEET

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Choose the natural sentence.

Use well to describe an action.

1. Diego is skilled at drawing.
   Choices: Diego can draw good. / Diego can draw well. / Diego can well draw.

   Answer: _____

2. I have some ability, but I am not strong at it.
   Choices: I can skate, but not very well. / I can skate, but not very good. / I can not well skate.

   Answer: _____

3. Her cooking is excellent.
   Choices: She can cook really well. / She can really good cook. / She can cooks very well.

   Answer: _____

2. Rewrite with well language.

Make the meaning more precise.

1. I can use Excel. (good ability)

2. He can play soccer. (strong ability)

3. We can speak French. (limited ability)

3. Rate your skills.

Choose three skills and write a different level for each.

1. Skill 1

2. Skill 2

3. Skill 3