Personality: Positive vs. Negative Sides

B1 · Vocabulary · WORKSHEET

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Choose the word with the right feeling.

Choose the adjective that matches the attitude.

1. A strong, admiring way to describe a person who never gives up.
   Choices: determined / stubborn

   Answer: _____

2. A critical way to describe someone who spends nothing, even on friends.
   Choices: thrifty / cheap

   Answer: _____

3. An admiring way to describe someone who believes in his abilities.
   Choices: confident / arrogant

   Answer: _____

4. A critical way to describe someone who asks too many personal questions.
   Choices: curious / nosy

   Answer: _____

2. Complete the sentence.

Choose one word: determined, stubborn, confident, arrogant, thrifty, cheap.

1. She is not ___ about money; she just saves for her trip.

2. My brother is ___. He trains every morning and wants to win.

3. He is so ___ that he thinks he is better than everyone else.

4. She is ___ when she presents. She speaks clearly and answers questions well.

3. Write two sides.

Describe the same behavior in a positive and a less positive way.

1. A person who plans everything very carefully.

3. Write two sides. (continued)

2. A person who always speaks first in meetings.

3. A person who saves money all the time.