A1 · Speaking · WORKSHEET

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Plan the people.

Use real or invented information. Short notes are enough.

1. Person 1: relationship, name, age, personality

2. Person 2: relationship, name, age, personality

3. Person 3: relationship, name, age, personality

2. Add personal details.

Choose details that make the talk more interesting.

1. A city or place connected to your family

2. A birthday month

3. A family activity or food you enjoy together

3. Draft your talk.

Write a short version first. Aim for 6-8 simple sentences, not a long essay.

1. Your 45-60 second family talk

4. Prepare for follow-up questions.

Write two questions a classmate can ask you and short answers.
