Will and Might: Predictions

A2 · Grammar · WORKSHEET

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Choose the correct sentence.

Choose the correct sentence.

1. You are sure about rain.
   Choices: It will rain tomorrow. / It will to rain tomorrow. / It wills rain tomorrow.

   Answer: _____

2. You are not sure.
   Choices: It might rain tomorrow. / It might to rain tomorrow. / It mights rain tomorrow.

   Answer: _____

3. A negative prediction.
   Choices: She won’t pass the test. / She doesn’t will pass the test. / She won’t passes the test.

   Answer: _____

4. A question.
   Choices: Will you be there? / Do you will be there? / Will you to be there?

   Answer: _____

2. Complete the prediction.

Write will, won’t, or might.

1. I’m sure it ___ be a great party.

2. I’m not sure. He ___ come to the party.

3. She ___ pass the exam. She never studies. (sure, negative)

4. We ___ go to the beach if it’s sunny. (possible)

3. Predict.

Write predictions about your future.

1. Write something you are sure will happen.

3. Predict. (continued)

2. Write something that might happen.

3. Write something that won’t happen.