Compare the Value of Products

B1-PLUS · Speaking · WORKSHEET

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Choose the best sentence.

Choose the best sentence.

1. Compare:
   Choices: Model A is slightly cheaper, but Model B is far more durable. / Model A is very cheaper, but Model B more durable much. / A cheaper slightly, B durable far.

   Answer: _____

2. Evaluate:
   Choices: Model B is worth the extra money. / Model B is worth the extra money for. / Model B worth extra money is.

   Answer: _____

3. Decide:
   Choices: I'd go for Model B because it lasts longer. / I'd go for Model B because lasting longer. / I go would Model B.

   Answer: _____

4. Persuade:
   Choices: You'll save money in the long run. / You save money in long run will. / Long run you saving money.

   Answer: _____

2. Complete the comparison.

Write one word.

1. This one is ___ cheaper, but it breaks easily. (small difference)

2. It's a bit too expensive ___ me.

3. I think it's worth the ___.

4. I'd go ___ the blue one.

3. Your comparison.

Compare two products you know.

1. Write a comparison with a modifier.

3. Your comparison. (continued)

2. Write an evaluation.

3. Write your decision and reason.