Modifying Comparisons

B1-PLUS · Grammar · WORKSHEET

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Choose the correct sentence.

Choose the correct sentence.

1. Choose.
   Choices: This phone is much cheaper than that one. / This phone is very cheaper than that one. / This phone is much more cheap that one.

   Answer: _____

2. Choose.
   Choices: The new model is slightly bigger than the old one. / The new model is slightly more big the old one. / The new model is slight bigger than old one.

   Answer: _____

3. Choose.
   Choices: Rent here is twice as expensive as in my town. / Rent here is twice more expensive that in my town. / Rent here is two as expensive than in my town.

   Answer: _____

4. Choose.
   Choices: The second option is far better than the first. / The second option is far more good than the first. / The second option is very better than the first.

   Answer: _____

2. Complete the sentence.

Write one word.

1. This bus is ___ faster than the train. (a big difference)

2. The blue shirt is ___ cheaper than the red one. (a small difference)

3. Her flat is three ___ as big as mine.

4. This book is just as interesting ___ the other one.

3. About you.

Compare things you know.

3. About you. (continued)

1. Write a big difference between two things.

2. Write a small difference.

3. Write a comparison with twice as or three times as.