Predictions: Be Going To and Will

B1 · Grammar · WORKSHEET

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Choose the best form.

Choose the form that fits the situation.

1. You see black clouds in the sky.
   Choices: It will rain. / It’s going to rain. / It rains.

   Answer: _____

2. Your opinion about the future of cities.
   Choices: I think cities will be greener. / I think cities are going to green. / I think cities greener.

   Answer: _____

3. A friend is driving very fast near a car.
   Choices: Watch out! You’ll crash! / Watch out! You’re going to crash! / Watch out! You crash!

   Answer: _____

4. Your opinion about next year’s economy.
   Choices: I don’t think prices will go down. / I don’t think prices going down. / I don’t think prices to go down.

   Answer: _____

2. Complete the sentence.

Write will, won’t, going to, or isn’t going to.

1. Look at the traffic! We ___ be late.

2. I think technology ___ change the way we study.

3. I don’t think he ___ finish on time. He hasn’t started yet.

4. Look at her face. She ___ cry.

3. Make predictions.

Write predictions for each situation. Use will or going to.

1. Something you can see now (weather, traffic, someone’s face).

3. Make predictions. (continued)

2. Your opinion about technology in ten years.

3. Your opinion about your city in five years.