First Conditional: Future Results

B1 · Grammar · WORKSHEET

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Choose the correct sentence.

Choose the sentence that is correct.

1. A possible result
   Choices: If the city builds more parks, people will be happier. / If the city will build more parks, people will be happier. / If the city builds more parks, people are happier tomorrow.

   Answer: _____

2. A warning
   Choices: If you don't leave now, you will miss the bus. / If you won't leave now, you miss the bus. / If you don't leave now, you missed the bus.

   Answer: _____

3. A promise
   Choices: If I find your wallet, I'll call you. / If I will find your wallet, I call you. / If I find your wallet, I called you.

   Answer: _____

4. A question
   Choices: What will happen if prices go up? / What happens will if prices go up? / What will happen if prices will go up?

   Answer: _____

2. Complete the sentence.

Write the correct form.

1. If we ___ (recycle) more, we'll produce less trash.

2. If it ___ (rain) tomorrow, we'll stay home.

3. If you ___ (not / hurry), you'll be late.

4. I ___ (help) you if you need me.

3. Predict consequences.

Write what will happen if...

1. The city builds more bike lanes.

3. Predict consequences. (continued)

2. The metro becomes cheaper.

3. People don’t recycle.

4. Write your own warning or promise.