Had Better vs. Should

B1 · Grammar · WORKSHEET

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Choose the best advice.

Choose the option that fits the situation.

1. The last bus leaves in five minutes.
   Choices: You could try another route. / You'd better hurry. / You should maybe check later.

   Answer: _____

2. A friend wants to try a new restaurant.
   Choices: You'd better eat there or you will regret it. / You should try it. It looks nice. / You must go.

   Answer: _____

3. Your friend forgot a travel card and inspectors are on the train.
   Choices: You'd better buy a ticket now. / You could look at the map. / You should maybe forget it.

   Answer: _____

4. A friend asks how to get to the airport. There are many ways.
   Choices: You could take a bus or a taxi. / You'd better take a bus. / You must take a taxi.

   Answer: _____

2. Complete the advice.

Write one or two words.

1. You'd ___ leave now, or you will be late.

2. You'd better ___ forget your ID.

3. You ___ visit the museum. It is very good. (normal advice)

4. We'd better ___ a taxi because the metro is closed.

3. Write advice with different strength.

Write advice for the same problem: should, could, and had better.

1. Problem: the train leaves in ten minutes and you are far from the station.

3. Write advice with different strength. (continued)

2. Problem: it is raining, and you plan to go to the market.