Indefinite Pronouns: Someone, Anything, Nobody

B1 · Grammar · WORKSHEET

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Choose the correct word.

Choose the option that fits.

1. I can’t find my keys ___. I looked in every room.
   Choices: anywhere / somewhere / nowhere

   Answer: _____

2. ___ was late to the meeting, so we started on time.
   Choices: No one / Anyone / Someone

   Answer: _____

3. Would you like ___ to drink?
   Choices: something / nothing / anything

   Answer: _____

4. ___ is ready. We can start the party!
   Choices: Everything / Anything / Nothing

   Answer: _____

2. Complete the sentence.

Write one word.

1. I didn’t see ___ at the party. (no people)

2. There is ___ in the fridge. It’s empty. (no things)

3. We went ___ interesting last weekend. (a place)

4. ___ knows the answer. We all studied. (all people)

3. Use the pronouns.

Write sentences with indefinite pronouns.

1. Write a sentence with someone or something.

3. Use the pronouns. (continued)

2. Write a negative sentence with anything or anyone.

3. Write a sentence with everywhere or nowhere.