Comparisons: Not As … As and Comparatives

B1 · Grammar · WORKSHEET

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Choose the sentence with the same meaning.

Choose the sentence that means the same.

1. The movie is better than the TV series.
   Choices: The TV series is not as good as the movie. / The movie is not as good as the TV series. / The TV series is better than the movie.

   Answer: _____

2. The new album is less interesting than the old one.
   Choices: The new album is not as interesting as the old one. / The old album is not as interesting as the new one. / The new album is more interesting.

   Answer: _____

3. Pop is not as relaxing as classical music.
   Choices: Classical music is more relaxing than pop. / Pop is more relaxing than classical music. / Classical music is not as relaxing as pop.

   Answer: _____

4. Movies are cheaper than concerts.
   Choices: Concerts are not as cheap as movies. / Movies are not as cheap as concerts. / Concerts are cheaper than movies.

   Answer: _____

2. Complete the sentence.

Write one word.

1. The second film is not as good ___ the first.

2. Streaming is cheaper ___ going to the cinema.

3. The book is ___ interesting than the movie. (less/more)

4. This game is not as ___ as the old one. (fun)

3. Rewrite the idea.

Say the same thing in a different way.

3. Rewrite the idea. (continued)

1. Rewrite: Live concerts are better than recordings. (use not as … as)

2. Rewrite: The series is less funny than the movie. (use not as … as)

3. Write your own comparison with not as … as.