Quantifiers: Many, Much and A Lot Of

B1 · Grammar · WORKSHEET

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Choose the correct quantifier.

Choose the option that fits.

1. There aren’t ___ parks in this area.
   Choices: much / many / a little

   Answer: _____

2. We don’t have ___ time to fix the problem.
   Choices: many / much / a few

   Answer: _____

3. There is ___ traffic at rush hour.
   Choices: a lot of / many / a few

   Answer: _____

4. Are there ___ bike lanes in your city?
   Choices: enough / much / a little

   Answer: _____

2. Complete the sentence.

Write one word: many, much, a lot of, enough, or too.

1. How ___ cars are there on this street?

2. There is too ___ noise in the city center.

3. We need more buses. There aren’t ___ buses at night.

4. There are ___ many people in the metro in the morning.

3. Describe your city.

Use quantifiers to describe what there is in your city.

1. Write two sentences with many and much (questions or negatives).

3. Describe your city. (continued)

2. Write two sentences with a lot of and too.

3. Write two sentences with enough.