Stressing New Information

B1 · Pronunciation · WORKSHEET

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Choose the stressed word.

Which word has the strongest stress because it is new information?

1. A: What do you study? B: I study BIOLOGY.
   Choices: I / study / biology

   Answer: _____

2. A: Is your meeting on Monday? B: No, it's on TUESDAY.
   Choices: meeting / Tuesday / on

   Answer: _____

3. A: Where does he live? B: He lives in MONTERREY.
   Choices: lives / He / Monterrey

   Answer: _____

4. A: Do you have two brothers? B: No, THREE brothers.
   Choices: No / three / brothers

   Answer: _____

2. Complete the answer.

Write the new information. Say it with stress.

1. A: What kind of music do you like? B: I like ___.

2. A: When do you wake up? B: I wake up at ___.

3. A: Who do you live with? B: I live with my ___.

4. A: Where are you going? B: I'm going to the ___.

3. Mark the stress.

Write each answer and put capital letters on the word you would stress.

1. A: What does she do? B: She is a doctor.

3. Mark the stress. (continued)

2. A: Does he play guitar? B: No, he plays piano.

3. A: How long have you lived here? B: For ten years.