Subject vs. Object Questions

B1 · Grammar · WORKSHEET

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Choose the correct question.

Decide if the question word is the subject or the object.

1. Someone broke the printer.
   Choices: Who did break the printer? / Who broke the printer? / Who broke printer?

   Answer: _____

2. Ana invited someone to the party.
   Choices: Who did Ana invite? / Who Ana invited? / Who invited Ana?

   Answer: _____

3. Something surprised the teacher.
   Choices: What surprised the teacher? / What did surprise the teacher? / What the teacher surprised?

   Answer: _____

4. The students asked the teacher something.
   Choices: What asked the teacher? / What did the students ask the teacher? / What the students asked?

   Answer: _____

2. Complete the question.

Write one or two words. Some questions need did and some do not.

1. Who ___ you see at the market yesterday?

2. Who ___ to the meeting? (come = someone came)

3. What ___ your sister buy at the store?

4. Which team ___ the game? (win = a team won)

3. Write two questions for each sentence.

One question about the subject and one about the object.

1. Daniel helped Sofia with her homework.

3. Write two questions for each sentence. (continued)

2. The manager called the new employee.

3. Write your own sentence and two questions.