Tell and Compare Stories

B1 · Speaking · WORKSHEET

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Choose the best comparison.

Choose the sentence that compares well.

1. Both lost something
   Choices: We both lost something, but I found mine. / We both lost something, but found mine I.

   Answer: _____

2. A difference
   Choices: The difference is that you asked for help, and I did not. / The difference is that you asked for help, and I am not.

   Answer: _____

3. A similarity
   Choices: In both stories, a stranger helped us. / In both stories, a stranger helps us yesterday.

   Answer: _____

4. Starting a story
   Choices: Let me tell you what happened last week. / Let me tell you what happens last week.

   Answer: _____

2. Complete the sentence.

Write one word.

1. Let me tell you what ___ last week.

2. We ___ lost something.

3. The ___ is that you found yours.

4. In ___ stories, someone helped us.

3. Plan and compare.

Write notes for your story and comparison.

3. Plan and compare. (continued)

1. Your story in three sentences.

2. Your partner’s story in three sentences.

3. Two comparison sentences.