Hang in there

B1 · Speaking · WORKSHEET

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Choose the best response.

Choose the most natural way to support your friend.

1. I have three exams this week and I'm so tired.
   Choices: That sounds tough. Hang in there! / Congratulations on your exams!

   Answer: _____

2. My boss gave me extra work again today.
   Choices: Hang in there. Friday is almost here. / Good luck on your vacation.

   Answer: _____

3. I'm learning to drive and I keep making mistakes.
   Choices: Hang in there. It gets easier with practice. / You should never drive again.

   Answer: _____

4. My grandmother is in the hospital.
   Choices: I'm so sorry. Do you need anything? / Hang in there! It's a great day!

   Answer: _____

2. Complete the sentence.

Write one word.

1. Hang ___ there! You're almost done.

2. It'll be ___ soon.

3. Don't give ___. You can do it.

4. Hang in there. It gets ___ every day.

3. Write a short conversation.

Write 4 lines: the problem, your reaction, Hang in there, and one offer of support.

3. Write a short conversation. (continued)

1. A classmate is stressed about a big project.

2. A coworker is tired after a long week.