Heads up

B1 · Speaking · WORKSHEET

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Choose the best option.

Choose the most natural sentence.

1. Your teacher changed the test date. You tell a classmate:
   Choices: Heads up, the test is on Monday now. / Watch out, the test is on Monday now.

   Answer: _____

2. A coworker says the meeting moved to 3 p.m.
   Choices: Thanks for the heads-up! / Heads up to you too!

   Answer: _____

3. A car is coming fast toward your friend.
   Choices: Watch out! / Heads up, a car will come later.

   Answer: _____

4. Which sentence is correct?
   Choices: I'll give you a heads-up before I leave. / I'll give you heads up me before I leave.

   Answer: _____

2. Complete the sentence.

Write one word.

1. Heads ___: the store closes early today.

2. Thanks for the ___-up!

3. Can you give me a heads-up ___ you arrive?

4. Just so you ___, the bus is late.

3. Write a short message and reply.

Write a message that starts with Heads up, then a reply with Thanks for the heads-up and a plan.

3. Write a short message and reply. (continued)

1. A change at school or work.

2. A problem at home or in the city.